Islamabad () Leading Muslim scholar and Ex-Minister of Kuwait Al-Sheikh Yousaf Hashim Al-Rafae has urged upon the Muslim Ummah to forge its unity by taking steady steps keeping in view contemporary world requirements.

Islamabad: Sheikh Yousaf Al-Hashem Al-Rafae, Ex-Minister, Kuwait addressing a gathering of faculty members and students at the International Islamic University Islamabad (IIU) on "Unity of Muslim Ummah". Dr. Anwar Hussain Siddiqui, President, IIU, Dr. Khalifa Hassan Ahmed vice president, academics and syed Muzammil Hussain Dey, Dr IIU are sitting on the stage.

He said this while addressing a gathering of faculty members and students of the International Islamic University, Islamabad here on Friday. He added that the unity of the Muslim Ummah is only guarantee for the solution of muslims' as well as world's problems. However, he added that this goal can be achieved by taking steps with wisdom and understanding of the world in which we are living. He admitted that there are a number of small differences among Muslims but these should be within books and not should be exploited by vested interests as it is visible all over the world in case of followers of other religions. He deplored the conspiracies of enemies of the Muslim Ummah but at the same time called for cautious steps to overcome this problem of grave implications.
